

Vittoria Pave' Evo CG

A tire that has been proven time and time again on roads of such notorious races as Paris-Roubaix and the Tour of Flanders, the Pave' Evo CG is the first choice in performance and durability. With it's instantly recognizable green tread, the Pave' Evo CG is likely the worlds' strongest racing tubular.

- Corespun Evo K cotton casing (80% cotton, 20% Kevlar)
- 320 TPI (Threads Per Inch) gives the Pave' Evo CG unparalleled feel and supple ride while being extremely absorptive of road conditions
- Kevlar SiO₂ 3D Compound for the tread delivers durability in multiple conditions and a proven "handmade" casing typical of all Vittoria tires
- High density casing allows up to 200 psi
- New PRB (Puncture Resistance Belt) improves flat prevention by up to 40% while reducing weight
- Lightweight at 270g
- Sizes 700x24c, 700x27c
- Preferred by many pros for early-season European races
- Available as an Open handmade tire. Same features as above, but as a folding clincher
 - 700x24c only
 - 240g
- Choice of the following pro teams:
 - Quickstep
 - Lampre
 - Euskaltel-Euskadi
 - Rabobank
 - Team Type 1

PRESS RELEASE

THE COMPANY

Vittoria Industries Ltd. with an annual production of more than five million tires (mainly for race bikes) and nine hundred thousand famous tubulars all developed and produced in its wholly owned factory Lion Tyres in Thailand, is one of the largest race bike tire specialists and producers in the world. Its mission is to create higher value for its stakeholders and offer high quality tires with the best available technologies to professional riders and bicycle enthusiasts.

More than 15 professional teams (Pro Tour and Continental), several National Cycle Federations and the UCI Technical Centre in Aigle (CH) have used Vittoria tires for their races and training programs for many years. The group operates and distributes its products through its subsidiaries in Europe (Vittoria S.p.A. in Italy), in the USA (Vittoria Industries North America) and Vittoria Logistics Taiwan.

The group owns two brands: Vittoria for road tires and Geax for MTB and trades several third party brands in some countries (3T, Mavic, Fox in Italy; 3T, Northwave, Selle San Marco, BBB in the US).
